DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO OCTOBER 13.

EASTERN STATES.

Funeral of Secretary Seward.

AUBURN, Oct. 13.—A full meeting of members of the bar was held last evening to take proper action in reference to the death of Mr. Seward. Appropriate resolutions were adopted. To day evergreens are being placed in the streets through which the funeral procession will pass en route to the cemetery, all being appropriately draped. The following named gentlemen were pall bearers: Thurlow Weed, Edwin D. Morgan, Richard Sokell, S. B. Ruggles, Abram W. Kornan, James Boner, D. W. Leavenworth, Henry Wells, J. Patterson, W. S. Myers, James A. Seymour, R. Steel, Nelson Beardsley, D. Hewson, E. T. T. Martin, John Porter and J. H. Chedell.

To-day at the various churches, remarks were made by the pastors regarding the nation's bereavement. At St. Peter's Episcopal Church, where Seward had long worshipped, and where for many years he was a vestryman, the services were particularly solemn.

Organizing for Grant.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Executive Committee of the Independent Society have recommended the formation of Grant Clubs throughout the country.

Welcome to Froude.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The members of the Lotus Club gave a brilliant reception last night to Jas. Anthony Froude, the distinguished English author. Whitelaw Reid in an appropriate address introduced Froude, and after passing an eloquent eulogium on the works of the author welcomed him in the name of the members of the Club to America. Froude responded briefly thanking the members for their kind reception. The following gentlemen among others addressed those present: John Bigelow, Edward Yates, Jas. Brooks, Gen. L. O. Dowell and Mayor Hall.

Odd Fellows' Celebration.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Grand United Order of Colored Odd Fellows will celebrate to-morrow, by a parade and meeting in the evening their twenty-eighth anniversary. Past Grand Masters and Council of Delegates from different States and candidates will participate.

All About a Horse Race.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The following is an account of the great four mile race yesterday at Jerome Park in which Mr. Sanford's Monarchist, by Lexington, distanced Harry Bassett. Monarchist went off first, with King Henry second and Bassett trailing. The race was very slow. At the quarter Bassett passed King Henry and ran a length or two ahead of Monarchist. In this way they ran the first mile. Passing the stand Col. McDaniels signaled Roe to go on. At the turn Bassett was even with Monarchist and fairly took the lead, holding it by half a length as they rounded the bluff coming into view. They were neck and neck at the three-quarter pole. Monarchist led a trifle at the furlong pole, and at the stand Monarchist again took the lead, and again McDaniels ordered Roe to go on, and again Jimmy responded, but before reaching the quarter pole it was evident that Bassett could not or would not respond to Roe's call. From that point to the finish Monarchist slowly but surely increased the lead and won by 200 yards in 7:33½. Bassett second, fifty yards in front of King Henry. Time first mile 1:52½, second 1:47½, third 1:56½, fourth 1:57.

The Scott Monument.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The unveiling and presentation of the Walter Scott monument will take place October 26th.

Another Strike.

The bakers contemplate a strike for 12 hours a day and $16 a week. They now work 18 hours a day and receive $12 a week.

Installation of Archbishop Bailey.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—The installation of Bishop Bailey as Archbishop of the diocese of Baltimore, took place to-day with the most imposing ceremonies.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From London.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Nellie Grant was a passenger on the Cunard steamer Scotia which sailed yesterday for New York.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, Oct. 13.—An official dispatch from Ferral reports that the insurgents still hold out, and although badly disorganized and poorly provided with ammunition, the Red Republican flag is flying from the masts of vessels and over palaces seized by them. Troops will arrive before the city to-morrow, and combine with the garrison in an attack on the rebels without delay. The Gaceta says the insurgents had the signal steamer of Cadiza, a tug boat and several barks. Citizens seem to look upon the movement with indifference, taking no part therein. The military Governor, commandant of the post, and all the officers are faithful to the Government, and the troops of the Government occupy strategic points.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Some people felt a slight shock of an earthquake a few minutes after midnight, but the feeling was far from general.

The Chinese commence to-day in earnest the work of driving the devil from their dwellings and stores.

Three Postoffices have been discontinued: Morgan, Lake county, Battle Mountain, Nevada, White Rock, Elko county, and Coast Fork, in same county.

OREGON.

The snag puller is still at work along the channel of the upper Willamet, pulling out snags and removing obstructions.

Some hunters from the vicinity of Silverton in Marion county, last week succeeded in capturing seven deer in one day in the foot-hills of the Cascade mountains.

The new instruments for the band at Roseburg, have come to hand. The discordant notes of the owls and cat will be drowned by those more pleasant and musical. So says the Pantagraph.

The two thieves who robbed Wallace of $215 a short distance from Dallas, the other day, have not yet been caught; it is hoped, however, that reliable information has been obtained as to their line of march.

Mr. McCann, of Roseburg, has a young bear which he is training. In some of their tussels it is first him and the bear, and then the bear and him. At one time bruin came near causing Mc to be bare of any clothing.

John Johnson, who was at work on North Coos river, was instantly killed about two weeks ago, by the caving in of a ditch in which he was at work. He was a single man and was between thirty-five and forty years of age.

The Dallas Republican says: "Indiana has gone for Greeley." We did not know that the Presidential election had been held in Indiana before. The Republicans of Indiana will "go for him" in November in a way he don't like.

Some of our young men about town called on a few Sundays since to see a favorite young lady. After flirting with her to their hearts' content, they left in high glee, and afterwards learned that she was married the evening before. Her husband was present and enjoyed the fun. So says a Roseburg paper.

At the election on the 11th inst., the Act to incorporate the town of Roseburg was carried by a majority of 25. The City Trustees elected are: C Gaddis, T. P Sheridan, Geo. Haynes, S. Hamilton, and W. I. Friedlander. Marshal, L. C. Rosenburg; Recorder, Andrew Jones; Treasurer, E. Livingston.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO OCTOBER 14.

EASTERN STATES.

New York Politics and News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—In Brooklyn, Mrs. Van Schoick died Saturday night from the effects of arsenic administered in her tea. She possessed considerable property in her own name and her husband is said not to be a good one. An investigation is progressing.

It is now thought that Havemeyer will be nominated for Mayor by the Regular Democrats, and Commissioner VanNort, Tweed's accuser, by the Republicans. This will make four candidates in the field for Mayor—the others being Lawrence and O'Brien.

A large number of friends of the late Mr. Seward, left last evening for Auburn to attend his funeral to-day.

An Expiring Howl.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The National Democratic Committee have issued an address to the people of the United States. They rehearse the results of the recent election and urge energetic and courageous measures in the prosecution of the campaign.

A Wail for Help.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 14.—The Democratic State Central Committee issued an address this morning to the Democracy of Ohio reproaching them for the apathy shown in the late election and urging them to repair mischief done by rallying to Greeley in November. The address says the result of the last Tuesday's election shows that Ohio was lost by a failure to poll the usual Democratic vote. Mortifying as is the fact, justice to the Liberal Republicans and an earnest desire to retrieve the misfortune, requires of us to declare it. In our chief towns the Liberal strength exceeded our most sanguine estimates. In the country it fell short, but the aggregate of Liberals in the cities and country who voted our State ticket, added to the Democratic vote of 1868, would have overcome the Republican majority at that election and the negro vote combined, and given us a victory. The committee indulge in some hopeful figuring on Greeley's chances, even without the votes of Pennsylvania and Ohio, and close with a pathetic appeal to the Democrats who failed to vote on Tuesday to come out at the Presidential election.

Cold Weather.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The weather is very cold for the season of the year. The first snow fell yesterday morning, but there were only a few scattering flakes. Heavy frosts are reported in all reports from the West on Saturday and Sunday nights. Crops are all out of danger of the frosts.

A Heavy Robbery in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The heaviest robbery committed here for years was perpetrated between 1 and 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the Ross House. Two sample trunks belonging to agents of Richberg & Co., jewelers, New York, containing $20,000 worth of watches, were taken from the office of the hotel by parties unknown.

Great B. R. Lawsuit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A Boston dispatch says a suit has been begun by the present Trustees of the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad, against the former Trustees under the Burdell mortgage for the recovery of two millions and a half of the bonds, which are alleged not to have been properly paid for according to the contract.

Ten indictments have been found by the county of New Jersey grand jury against persons for fraudulently registering prior to the late charter election.

Installation of Bishop Bailey.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—The ceremony of the installation of the new Archbishop, Bailey, of the Cathedral yesterday, was the most brilliant religious pageant ever witnessed in Baltimore. None were admitted but those having tickets, notwithstanding which, at least five thousand people crowded within the building, while fully as many more assembled in the streets and around the church anxious to see the imposing ceremonies.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Privy Counsellor of England.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Roundell Palmer will take the bath of Privy Counsellor to-morrow.

Prince Napoleon at Geneva.

GENEVA, Oct. 14.—Prince Napoleon arrived here, accompanied to the frontier by agents of the French Government.

From Madrid.

MADRID, Oct. 14.—The Carlists continue their agitation in Catalonia where several have been arrested, including some soldiers on furlough. No further news received from Ferral. Capital perfectly tranquil.

NEVADA.

Railroad Disaster.

TRUCKEE, Oct. 14.—Last night, as the Eastern bound passenger train was within about a quarter of a mile west of this place, the tender of the engine jumped off the track, throwing the mail, baggage and express cars down an embankment, totally demolishing them, killing instantly Dan Warner, messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co., Capt. Taylor, Guard, and Mr. Hauk, Postal Agent. D. G. Marshal. The Conductor was caught between the baggage car and sleepers and his body nearly severed in twain. The bodies were taken to Sacramento for burial. Mr. Miner, brakeman, was fatally injured. His right thigh is crushed in a terrible manner. No passengers injured. The wreck is a fearful sight.

ARIZONA.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 14.—A private correspondence dated Tucson, Oct. 8th, says: On September 30th, the Apaches attacked Hughes' Ranch, near Camp Crittenden, killed a Mexican and stole a number of animals. Word was sent to the Post and Lieut. Hall, Fifth Cavalry, took fifteen men to the house on the ranch, where Mrs. Galena and children were besieged. The Indians, about 100 strong, with breech-loading guns, retired to the mountains near by and defied the troops to attack them. The disparity being so great no fight was attempted. Lieut. Hall then dispatched a Sergeant and five men to move the farmers further down the valley out of danger. On the return of this party, when near Hughes' Ranch, the Indians attacked them, killing Serg't Geo. Stewart, Corporal Wm. Nation, and privates Edward Carr and John Walsh, all of the Fifth Cavalry. The bodies of all the men were found and buried. Just as this was done an order was received by Lieut. Hall from Gen O. O. Howard, directing that the Indians on the roads and in the mountains be not fired on unless engaged in actual outrages. The same order was sent to all points south of the Gila river. Gen. Howard was at that time in the Dragoon Mountains, with the noted Cochese, trying to induce him to go on the reservation.

On the 6th of October a large band of Apaches from the Santa Rita mountains with a herd of stolen cattle, attacked a party of American and Mexican miners, thirty miles south of Tucson, and robbed them of all their animals. Two men are missing. The Indians were armed with the best of rifles and fixed ammunition.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The U. S. Commissioners to-day, after hearing the evidence of the prosecution against Capt. Ingram, of the Colorado, charged with causing the death of Miss Shipman on the high seas, dismissed the defendant.

The U.S. Branch Mint, Treasury and Custom House, were closed throughout the day in respect to the memory of the late Wm. H. Seward. Flags were also at half mast in different parts of the city.

The trial of private detective Ansbro for libel on Edith O'Gorman, the "Escaped Nun," occupied most of the day in the Municipal Court. The case was given to the jury at 5 o'clock. In less than three minutes the jury returned a verdict of guilty. It will be recollected that the alleged libel consisted of statements made to the reporter of the Post by him, and published in that paper, charging Mrs. O'Gorman with buying whisky in a bar-room. Mrs. O'Gorman and husband were present during the trial and appeared to receive the verdict with great satisfaction.

The Grand Consistory of Ancient and Accepted Scottish rite of Free Masonry for California, convened here this afternoon.

The Straightout Democrats met this afternoon and appointed a committee of five to prepare an address and elect candidates for Electors.

The U. S. steamer Wyandot arrived this afternoon from a cruise along shore.

The Straightout Democrats finished up their business and have adjourned sine die. They adopted an address to the Democracy of the State, giving the reasons for their action, which do not differ materially from those given in the Louisville address.

The following persons were chosen as candidates for Electors: J. Mora Moss, Jackson Temple, Z. Montgomery, William J. Graves, William R. Patton and A. J. King. Alternates, G. W. Hunter, Ed. F. McCarthy, Daniel Taylor, A. P. Bernard, E. N. Foote and Edward Bean. The State Central Committee consists of John Nugent, Charles P. Botts, Charles Golden, W. D. Sawyer, J. S. Reardon, J. C. Dobbs, P. Jones, Hiram O'Neil, R. A. Bloodwell, J. F. Vaunoss, E. L. Gold, Geo. S. Ellstell, J. M. Johnson, William T. O'Neale, Jacob Snyder, Dr. S. M. Mouser, Dr. Dobbin, Thomas Wallace and William Faltner. It is probable that some of those named may decline to serve, but those who have put the movement forward will go ahead at all events. It is calculated that the Los Angeles News and Mariposa Gazette, both Democratic papers, will support the movement. It is understood that the straight-outs support for Congress such candidates as are old Democrats.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

STOCKTON, Oct. 14.—The largest political gathering of the season is now being held at the Republican Wigwam. Judge J. M. Cavish opened the meeting and addressed the crowd in his usual logical and forcible manner. Hon. H. J. Page, Republican candidate for Congress for this the Second District, is now in the stand. He denies the charges made by his opponents that he is a tool of the Central Pacific Railroad; but frankly admits that he is in favor of internal improvements, but is opposed to subsidizing any corporation, and will, if elected, vote against giving any more of the public domain to railroad or other corporations.

SHASTA, Oct. 14.—E. W. Snyder and B. Hubbard were engaged in playing cards when a dispute arose, which they agreed to go outside and settle. As they were going, Snyder was ahead of Hubbard, who stabbed him fatally.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—A correspondence is published between the citizens and the special agent of the S. P. R. R., relating to the location of depots and repair shops within the limits of the city. The Company, for a donation of ten acres of land for a depot, and fifty acres for workshops, will agree to locate the same within the corporate limits of the city, making Los Angeles the headquarters of this division of their road, if a 5 per cent. subsidy be voted and land donated.

VICTORIA, Oct. 14.—Steinberger's distillery in this city was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Loss, over $5,000. No insurance.

American flags were displayed at half-mast on the receipt of the news of the death of ex-Secretary Seward.

H. M. sloop Petrel arrived yesterday, under sail, 45 days from Antofagasti, Bolivia. One of her seamen, named Geovry Amor, was washed overboard from the forecastle, during a heavy gale of wind on the 26th of July last, in the Gulf of Penas.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 14.—W. Buckner, proprietor of the Central Restaurant, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself through the head.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1872.

The Anti Water Demonstration.

The anti-water meeting last night was a most wretched fizzle. The meeting was composed of less than one hundred souls.—a large number of whom were mere sojourners in the city, who went to the Court House simply as lookers on, having supposed from the amount of drumming and ringing of bells and shouting, that had been done during the day, that there would be an immense mass meeting, and that the tax-paying people were to be out in full force. They had a right to expect more than they were permitted to see, for the city had been kept in a constant din by the getters-up of the demonstration from early morning till the hour appointed for the meeting. One could scarcely step out upon the street without encountering one or another of a set consisting of about seven persons who were doubtless hired by the job, and who beset every citizen they met with that ardent zeal which is characteristic of the conduct of persons who are to be paid according to the degree of their success. Most of the substantial citizens whom they accosted informed them that they had already canvassed this matter and had no sympathy with the anti-water movement; but it was supposed there would be a better showing at the meeting than there was. There were a few persons who are well known and estimable citizens, but the entire taxable property represented would not amount to one twentieth of the assessment roll of the city. This shows how much Mr. Holladay's paper has accomplished by falsely charging the men who brought forward the bill now pending before the Legislature, with having secretly concocted that bill to subserve their own private ends.

We had thought the bill would meet the demand quite as well, with provisions for a smaller amount of bonds, say $750,000, and with a rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent. But the Committee did not so think, and the bill having been laid before the public of Portland, previously to its introduction in the Legislature, and no objection being made, we took it for granted that the taxpayers who have to foot the bills, approved of the views of the Committee; and the signal failure of this attempt to get a meeting against the measure would seem to justify that conclusion. We apprehend, however, the greatest objection to an amendment relating to the amount of bonds and vote of interest would be that it would open the way for further tinkering upon the bill, and might end in some material change in the manner of carrying it into effect, such as the mode of appointing Commissioners, &c., which would be likely to convert the whole thing into a good basis for political stock-jobbery.

The reduction of the public debt during the month of August was $10,736,635 89. During September it was $10,327,343 09. Since the commencement of the present Administration the reduction has been $358,468,582 55. The interest on the public debt, when President Grant was inaugurated, was $10,532,462 50 per month. It is now $8,566,161 25. This is a saving of $23,595,735 per year on the item of interest alone. Meanwhile, the burdens of taxation have decreased in a ratio even greater than the decrease of the debt. We are paying off our national obligations at a rapid rate, and at the same time are paying less taxes than we paid during an administration that constantly augmented the debt instead of reducing it. And yet the Greeley orators and newspapers are constantly denouncing the administration of Grant as reckless and extravagant in expending the people's money, and declaring that the commerce and industries of the country are languishing and dying by reason of the unwise financial policy of the Government.

It is commonly observed that when a community has a public debt upon it, there must be levied from year to year an extra tax, over and above that which is necessary to meet the ordinary expenses of the government, in order to pay the interest on the public debt as it falls due, and provide a sinking fund with which to meet the principal when that shall become payable: The United States government reversing this rule, reduces the taxation at the same time that it pays the debt. This is owing in part, no doubt, to the rigid economy enforced by the Administration in the collection and application of the public funds; but it cannot be wholly attributable to this cause. The margin is too large to be referable entirely to better collection and application. The business of the country has greatly increased and is still increasing, so that while the taxes imposed upon commerce are lighter than they have been, the amount of the commerce taxed is so much greater as to compensate for the difference of rate.

The Bulletin would like to have two wings to the Republican party. It endeavored last spring by its violent attacks upon, and personal abuse of, some of the most steadfast Republicans in the State, to drive them out of the party. It insisted that those who dared to differ from it, should be driven out of the organization; and if these Republicans had not been made of a little more substantial material than that of which the Bulletin is composed, we might have had a divided Republican party. It is well for the party that it is not mainly composed of such recent converts and of men so unreliable.

The late threats of the Bulletin, that Oregon would be lost to the Republican party if the State dare to acquire possession of the Locks, has no terror to old Republicans. It is true the editor of the Bulletin may again go into the Democratic fold; it is true the Railroad Company will not perhaps again bring to our primaries hundreds of illegal voters to overawe and privote our permanent citizens; it may be true that when the Republican party cannot be used longer for the private ends of one man, corporation or set of men, that man and those he can control will abandon the party. It may be so, but we do not believe the sturdy Republicans that have fought so many battles in the past, will falter even then. If, in the judgment of our legislators, they shall think it for the best interest of the State and people to acquire control of the Wallamet Locks, now the only practicable check upon the extortionate rates that are exacted by the present means of transportation; if they shall think our producers cannot afford to pay one-fifth, one-fourth, or one-third of their wheat crop for transporting it from 75 to 125 miles; that the people cannot afford to be bound to one corporation and have the gateway of our commerce in the hands of one man; that the State should obtain and keep control of this great highway; and if care is exercised to obtain these Locks upon reasonable terms; their action will certainly meet the approval of the people.

The bill providing for the purchase of the Canal and Locks at the Falls of the Wallamet, as it has been reported back by the Special Committee, authorizes the Commissioners to contract with the Canal and Locks Company for the purchase of the works, the payment to be $50,000 annually for twelve years without interest. Of this $50,000, there is to be reserved and placed in the school fund $5,000 annually, so that the amount paid to the Company would be $45,000 a year. This would amount in the twelve years to $540,000. The present value of this sum at ten per cent. per annum, would be $312,866.80. That amount loaned out now at ten per cent., payable in equal annual installments, principal and interest, would produce $45,000 annually for twelve years. Assuming then that the Company would loan the money upon these terms, without turning it over during the time, this contract would be the same as $312,866.80 cash. That amount of actual money, however, every one knows would be worth far more, for it could be made to produce a far greater return.

We call attention to the list of appointments of Hon. W. D. Hare, one of our candidates for Presidential elector, which we publish in another column.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, Oct. 14, 1872.

The exodus on Saturday was great, so that during yesterday few of the elect were to be seen. A large lobby, known here as the "Ishmaelites," followed close upon the heels of departing Senators and Representatives as if they feared to trust them out of sight. The morrow will see hostile factions again arrayed upon the Locks Bill, which has been made the special order for Tuesday 2 P. M. We have promise of a hot contest. Of course, both friends and foes of this measure are confident of success. Each can point to omens, decisive and plain to them as the noonday sun.

The House amended Mr. Caples' motion to postpone the bill to Thursday, thereby showing its unwillingness to defeat it by strategy. As the session draws to a close, new bills pour in rapid succession upon the desk of the House. On last Saturday the introduction of startled the House into a consciousness of the awful fact that the work of the session has not fairly begun. During the short space of forty minutes eighteen new bills were introduced by unanimous consent, nearly all the rules were suspended, the bills read first and second times by title, and referred to the appropriate committees. One of the most laughable events was the persistent effort of Mr. Caples to obtain the floor. With grave pertinacity seven times he strove for recognition by the Speaker, and seven times some member with less cumbrous physique challenged the bland bow of that gentleman. Tiring of this monotony of defeat the Representative from Multnomah appealed to the mercy of the House, and, by stipulation, on the eighth round Mr. C. won the floor.

CONDITION OF CERTAIN BILLS.

H. B. No. 1, to repeal the Litigant Act of 1870, has passed the House and is now on its second reading in the Senate. Its fate in that body in doubtful, although it is generally believed that it will pass.

H. B. No. 7, regulating the practice of medicine, lies on the table in the House. Its companion measures—H. B. 8 and 9—the former to promote the study of astronomy, the latter to protect physicians and surgeons—sleep the sleep that knows no waking in that tomb of unpopular measures—the table.

H. B. 14, for the prevention of cruelty to animals, is in the hands of the Committee of Ways and Means.

Cranor's Divorce Bill, which provides that all testimony in suits for divorce shall be given orally, in open Court, has passed the House and is on its second reading in the Senate.

The bill to abolish the Grand Jury system was made the special order for Monday at 10 o'clock.

GERMAN SCHOOLS.

Mr. Hirsch, on Saturday, introduced H. B. No. 112, to provide for common schools taught in the German language. H. B. No. 114, authorizes the County Commissioners of the several counties to create a sinking fund for county purposes, by loaning revenues raised by tax for specific purposes, and to manage the same. The law, as it now stands, empowers the County Commissioners to levy taxes for specific purposes, but does not authorize them to loan the same. It was argued by Mr. Mallory in Committee of the Whole that the proposed statute would lessen the rate of taxation for public improvements. If, for instance, a county desired to build a court house, by this provision, instead of levying a tax sufficient to build at once, the Commissioners might levy a low tax, put the revenue at interest and thereby, in a few years at a reduced rate of taxation, be enabled to complete the work. The House sustained Mr. M.'s views.

Senate J. R. 18, to appoint three Commissioners to represent Oregon at the has passed both Houses. The Commissioners are to receive no compensation. Thus far the number of bills introduced into the House is 133; in the Senate, 69—an encouraging prospect for Engrossing Clerks. Probably the general massacre will begin about Thursday.

The potato crop in a failure in England and probably also in Northern New York. The Franklin Gazette, published at Malone, Franklin county, says: "The continuous rainy weather for the last thirty days, most of the time having been very warm, has had much to do with the present discouraging condition of this important crop, and which is causing such a wide-spread alarm for its safety. Nothing but cool and dry weather for the next thirty days can save it from what may well be termed a complete failure."

The latest novelty is a new musical instrument, called the Xylo-Calame piano, which signifies the wood-straw piano. It is composed of pieces of pine wood an inch square and varying in length, held together by two pieces of string, with washers between the blocks, the whole resting on a bed of straw. The inventor has experimented some time with the instrument, until he has been able to obtain a perfect chromatic scale, and, as he thinks, nearly all the vibrations that the wood is capable of.

A seal's paradise has been discovered, and will soon be invaded by hundreds of enterprising fishermen. Around a group of small uninhabited islands, near South Shetland, south and east of Cape Horn, for twenty years and over, the soft-eyed seals have sunned themselves and gamboled in perfect security. But now a change is to come o'er the spirit of their dreams, and it will, from this out, become the struggle of their lives to see whether they or some elegant young lady will wear their skins.

According to the last census, 6,550,000 scholars are reported in the 121,000 schools of the country. Of this number, 232,000 were foreign. These were instructed by 219,000 teachers, 93,000 of these being male. The total expenditure for instruction was $34,194,000.

Recent experiments have demonstrated that tobacco can be raised in California of as good quality as the best grown in other States. Samples of tobacco and cigars were recently exhibited in San Francisco which could hardly be distinguished from the best Havanas.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

FAIR GROUNDS, Oct 14, 1872.

The Annual Fair of the Washington County Agricultural Society opened to-day, under favorable auspices. Up to noon the time of the officers was consumed in assigning lots for shows, swings and trading stalls. Hacks are in abundance, running to all the towns in the county. A larger concourse of people have put in an appearance this year than at any previous Fair. There was considerable strife to-day about stalls for horses, and not a few of the principal breeders were exercised for some time, but finally the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and the further business of the Fair started off smoothly.

There were no arrivals in the cattle line till noon, and the exhibition of cattle is not likely to be very extensive.

A splendid lot of Cotswold sheep was early on the ground from the farm of S. G. Reed, Esq.

Robert Imbrie, Esq., is on hand with a sow and litter of pigs, which he says he first brought on the grounds to show that "there is nothing in blood" so far as hogs are concerned. This lot are a cross of Suffolk, China and "Rail Splitter," and are handsome indeed—for hogs. There were no

HOGS IN THE PAVILION.

But there were some other things that would be considered more pleasant to the eye. As these articles, however, are of a kind that do not die or run away, and as there are some distinguished arrivals in posse that may set off to advantage those that are in esse, I will defer any particular description of the exhibition inside the pavilion till to-morrow, and proceed to speak of the

FIRST TROTTING MATCH.

This was a race of two best in three. W. G. Scoggins named Tom Moore, and Mr. Sloan, of the Grove, name Butcher Boy. Tom Moore took the first heat in 4:15, and the Boy took the next two in 4:18 and 4:12, respectively. It was well that they got in before night. At 2 o'clock, when it was definitely ascertained that all the trotting horses in the former race had got in, a running race was announced

TWO YEAR OLDS.

Mr. West named Columbia Bird, Mr. Bybee named Maid of Wasco, and Mr. Young named Will Bingham. The colts started off fair, but it was soon evident that the Maid was to have it all her own way. The sequel proved the correctness of this indication, for she took the race in two straight heats, and came in under heavy pull both times. The others could not furnish amusement for her. There were no more races, and I turned my attention toward the cattle stalls to find that Mr. Imbrie had brought in a fine short-horn bull, and Mr. Tucker a three year old graded bull, but the cattle show is thin.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The pavilion is filling up this afternoon, the cotswolds arriving, and the campers becoming numerous. The swing people, and the show people that buy and sell and get gold, are beginning to make the place merry; but the greatest excitement in these several lines will not be reached till to-morrow or next day.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1872.

CITY.

THE LOCH-DEE.—The British bark Loch-Dee was built in the port of Glasgow, Scotland, in the year 1870, and is classed as "A 1" in the Liverpool underwriters' books for the term of twenty years. This vessel has made three voyages from England since her construction, the last being to South American, the second to San Francisco where she was called the "Pride and Belle of the Bay," and the third to this port; and a description of the vessel for the accommodation of freight deserves more than a passing notice. The dimensions are as follows: Length, 190, or 200 feet over all; breath, 29½; and depth, 19½. She is constructed of plate iron, and bark rigged with double top sail yards. The masts are of the strongest material, being iron; and the bottom of each mast is strongly strapped and bolted into the kelson, and also fastened to each deck by iron bolts, thus making them permanent in their place, and competent to stand the heaviest gales of wind which are encountered in crossing the Atlantic. The yards are also iron, with wire rigging throughout. The deck-work is of the richest and most costly finish. From the stem to the stern post the substantial carpenter work, which attracts the eye of the visitor, and the mouldings of teak on each side, from the deck to the top rail, combine strength and beauty. Another feature about this vessel is the skylights, which are composed of oval glass, ornamented with tasteful paintings. Over the glass are burnished brass rods to protect the glass from breaking. At the end of the skylight, next to the steering apparatus, there is painted on one of the panes of glass a beautiful woman seated upon the eastern shore of the Atlantic, and looking far away in the distance at a vessel sailing across the ocean, which is doubtless made to represent "Britannia Rules the Waves." At the opposite end of the skylight is a painting of a swan's head with this motto, "I never sleep." The convenience for ventilating the ship's hold is superior to any model that we have heretofore noticed. All her mooring bitts have brass caps on the top which unscrew and act in the capacity of mooring bitts and ventilators. There are several stationary ventilators on board. The steering apparatus is an improvement on the old method, and is wood in its construction. Below there are two iron water tanks, capable of holding 4,000 gallons; and in case the voyage should be prolonged, there is a condensing apparatus on board which can manufacture forty gallons of fresh water a day. All the beams, stanchions, knees, and stringers are iron, which does not occupy as much room as the old wooden vessels, and which leaves more room in the vessel's hold for freight. The sides are all sealed with permanent dunnage, which under it impossible for the freight to get wet. The vessel is perfectly tight, and for shipping grain is not excelled by any vessel sailing from Great Britain. The superior workmanship upon the cabin, and the rich panels of curly maple and the mahogany surrounding the skies, and the velvet plush cushioned seats, surpasses the finish of any vessel's cabin which has ever entered this port.

PISCATORIAL ACCIDENT.—The following accident befel a person residing not a thousand miles from this city, who went angling the other day. Our hero found, after several hours' tramping, a nice stream of water. He baited his hook and set down for a "nibble" in a shady little nook overhung by rocks, trees and undergrowth. Presently he felt a gentle pull at his line. He gave a vigorous jerk, and had the satisfaction of throwing in sight a fine speckled trout over a foot in length. In his haste in drawing out the fish, he tossed it several yards back of where he was sitting, and it fell down the bank towards the stream. He sprang to catch it, and in clambering over the rocks, started a large boulder which rolled over and caught him on the heel. The boulder was too heavy for him to remove, and it soon became evident to him that he must lay there until assistance should reach him, which would probably be two or three hours. Fortunately the rock lay near the water, and by creating a current under it, the sand was washed away sufficiently to enable him to extricate his leg. Fortunately no bones were broken, but the gentleman had much difficulty in both hems on his crippled limb. In a few days he was able to get around with the aid of a cane. He didn't get his trout. It floundered off among the brush; and after extricating himself, he was willing to return to the city without either trout or angling rod. It wasn't a good day for fishing.

GLASS BROKEN.—One of the window curtains in the third story of Gilman's brick building, over the Postoffice, caught in the wind yesterday, and was swung violently to and fro. Several large panes of glass were broken by the end of the stick attached to the lower end of the curtain. The fragments of the glass came rattling down on the awning and sidewalk, producing quite a panic among the crowds, who were unable to divine for a moment what was causing the shower of glass. When it was learned that it was the result of a window curtain, and not an earthquake, a general laugh was indulged in and the excitement was at an end.

A SLIM CHANCE FOR A WIFE.—A young man up town, a supporter of Greeley, is in a bad way. He has been courting an exceedingly pretty girl for some time, and she didn't care half as much about him as he does for her. He popped the question to her the other night, and smiling sweetly on him, she said: "Well, I can't say that I love you, but since you're so persistent, I will marry you after Greeley is elected President." "Not till then?" he asked agonizingly. "Not till then," she replied. The apothecaries have been notified not to sell that young man any Paris green, and the Police officers have been instructed to keep a strict watch upon the river.

GRADE STREET.—A number of men are constantly employed in grading down the foot of Stark street. The surplus earth is wheeled down as fast as loosened, and dumped into the waters' edge. This tends to materially reduce the sharpness of the grade. When the street is planked, the grade can be accomplished with much greater ease by heavily loaded teams than formerly. The north half of the street has already been graded down, and a temporary roadway laid, so that wagons can pass down from Front street to the ferry boat on that side of the street, while the other side can be graded. When this is accomplished, the street will be planked.

HAVE IT THIS?—The old adage of "Go from home for news," is very well verified by the following, which appears in a leading New York journal: "A young lady in Portland, Oregon, recently had her affections stolen, her heart lacerated, her life blighted, etc., etc., by a reckless youth, and proposed to make all whole again by presenting the youth for breach of promise. He came forward and offered himself as a poultice to her wounded spirit, offered in short to make his promise good; but no, she must have cash, and cash she got from an intelligent jury." This, we hazard, will be news to most of the public here.

RUN FOR LIFE.—Two young ladies while passing along First street in front of the Postoffice, yesterday, suddenly took fright and ran out into the middle of the street. Their action attracted much attention, but was soon explained. A window in the third story of the building had been smashed in, and the shivered glass came down in torrents. These ladies had evidently had some earthquake experience. They must have been in San Francisco during the late "shake up," and falling glass served to bring the "unpleasant circumstance" vividly to their remembrance.

FIVE MILES YET.—The trains will probably be running into Roseburg by Saturday next. The road between the Umpqua bridge and Roseburg has been completed, and track-laying commenced yesterday morning. The road will be pushed through to that point, when further operations towards the State lines will be abandoned for the present year.

FINE HORNS.—We were shown yesterday by Col. H. R. Leonard, a magnificent pair of elk horns. These antlers have six points to each prong, and although over four feet from tip to tip are covered with a fine coat of velvet. The animal which bore them was killed between Oakland and Coos Bay, a short time ago.

NEW LEDGE.—The quartz rock, spoken of a few days ago, which was forwarded to San Francisco on the last steamer, came from the Green Ledge, a new and rich ledge situated in Baker county. The owners of this lead will doubtless await the results of the assay with much interest.

WALLS FINISHED.—The walls of the new brick gas tank at the corner of Sixth and F streets has been completed. The concrete bottom will soon be laid, when the reservoir will be ready to receive the water.

For all kinds of upholstery work, window shades, curtains, baskets, brackets, etc., call at Paul Richter's. Work promptly attended to.

THE WATER BILL.

Pursuant to the call made yesterday afternoon by numerous flaming posters, about fifty taxpayers of the city (ninety souls by actual count, including reporters and boys) assembled last evening at the Court House.

The object of the meeting, as set forth by the aforesaid posters, was to remonstrate against the passage of a bill now pending before the Legislature, by which the "taxpayers of the city were to be robbed of one million dollars."

After considerable delay and much hanging back among the "taxpayers," who composed the answer to the "call," the crowd came in and took seats.

Mr. Philip Cohen rose and moved that Mr. S. J. McCormick act as Chairman of the meeting. The motion prevailed, and came forward. He commenced to explain the object of the meeting. He said that a certain Bill was now pending before the Legislature called the Water Bill, which he thought should be odious to every tax payer in the city. The late petition which was circulated and signed by some of the tax payers had been done "on the sly." A few persons like the three tailors he had read of, had assembled, and called themselves the tax payers of Portland. He had lived in this city for the last twenty years, and paid his taxes. The petition in question had not been presented to him, and there were fifty persons, or more, with whom he had conversed and likewise never seen the petition.

After the few remarks by the Chairman, O. P. Mason was called out. That gentleman remarked that he was not a heavy tax payer, but, he in common with many others, seriously objected to the Water Bill. He was opposed to any bill by which the people of this city were to be taxed to the extent of one million dollars. Mr. Mason next read the bill by sections, and offered such explanations (?) as he deemed necessary. It was not safe to intrust these Water Commissioners with the handling of $1,000,000 of the people's money, and hold them to a strict and faithful performance of their duties, by a bond of only $25,000. It was unsafe for the city to issue bonds to the extent proposed by the bill. It would grind the people down with a grievous taxation. He denounced the Legislators and makers of the bill as endeavoring to perpetrate a swindle on the people. There were many and grave inconsistencies in the bill. He was not in favor of allowing any party or parties in particular to own and control the water works in Portland. The supply of water should be left open to competition, for by that means water could be furnished at cheaper rates than in any other way. If the bill was left to the choice of the voters, it would be killed. He felt confident that nine out of every ten persons would vote against the passage of the bill. If the bill was to pass at all, he was in favor of its passage as amended. The amendment made the bill more acceptable than it passed originally as it stood. Many, he said, whose names were attached to the petition, had signed it under a misapprehension—not knowing what they were doing at the time.

Loud calls were made for Judge Trimble, when Mason took his seat. He had called at the court house, merely out of curiosity, and had not expected to say anything. He was very strongly opposed to the passage of the bill, as he considered it was fraught with the most serious consequences to the people of this city. It was wrong to place a mortgage on every foot of land in the city for the construction of such works. The city already was supplied with water, and no other works were required. A million dollars was too much to place in the hands of five men, with only $25,000 bonds. It was giving too much. The commissioners would be entrusted with too much power. They might conclude to purchase out the present water company's works and give them one million dollars, and how could the tax payers help themselves. The bill should be voted down.

In conclusion, he moved that the Chair appoint a committee of three persons, whose duty it should be to draft a remonstrance, and forward the same to the Legislature at the earliest practicable date.

The motion prevailed, and the Chair appointed W. F. Trimble, Col. Dennison and W. P. Burke.

Mr. Dennison stated that as three persons on the committee were Democrats, he would decline the position in favor of Mr. C. S. Silver, in order to destroy the impression that there was any political ends to subserve. There being no objections made, the name of Col. Dennison was withdrawn, and that of Mr. Silver substituted.

It was moved and carried that three other names be placed on the same committee. The Chair appointed as such, F. Harbaugh, C. M. Carter and J. S. Gilliner.

On motion of P. Cohen, a sub-committee of two men from each ward were appointed, who were to assist in circulating the remonstrance, so that it could be forwarded to Salem as soon as possible.

The following persons were appointed by the Chair as such sub-committee:

First Ward—P. Cohen and J. Donovan.
Second Ward—Jacob Mayer and R. Porter.
Third Ward—A. Pahle and F. Harbaugh.

The Committee on Remonstrance then reported the following, which, on motion, was adopted and the committee discharged:

We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of the city of Portland, Multnomah county, do remonstrate against the passage of the Water Bill now pending before the Legislature of the State of Oregon.

On motion of Col. Dennison, the Chairman was authorized to send a dispatch to the members of the Legislature from this county, informing them that a remonstrance was in circulation and would be forwarded without delay to that body as soon as signatures were obtained.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

As a meeting of the tax-payers of the city of Portland, the whole affair was a mere farce and a miserable failure. We venture the assertion that not one in every five of the tax payers of the city were present, and that not more than one-twentieth of the property of the city was represented in the meeting. The attendance was very fair-goodcount, there being, as before stated, just ninety persons present, and scarcely half that number owners of property at all. Thus ended the "watry fizzle."

PERSONAL.

The following persons arrived overland from the East last evening at San Francisco: Louis A. Haynes, Oysterville; Eliza Turner, Dr. Chapin and wife, of Jacksonville.

FIREMEN'S BADGE.—The order for the manufacture of the badge to be used by the Fire Department of this city, for the purchase of which the Common Council appropriated the sum of $200, has been forwarded to New York. These badges will be made of a bright alloy and will be of handsome design.

NEW STABLE.—The new stable of the Oregon Transfer Company, on G, between Fifth and Sixth streets, is rapidly approaching completion. The sides have been inclosed and about half the roof placed on. This building will be finished in two or three weeks.

AT WASHINGTON.—The plans, accompanying ordinances etc., which were forwarded to Washington some weeks ago, arrived in safety at their destination last Thursday, and are now in the possession of the Secretary of War, for his investigation and approval.

THE WEEKLY TO WALLULA.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company will hereafter run their boats three times a week between Dalles and Wallula. Passengers leave Portland on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, to connect.

NEW RETORTS.—Three new gas retorts are being placed in at the Portland Gas Works. The old retorts, which have been used for a long time, are "burned out," and cannot render service longer with safety.

VOLUMES ADDED.—Fifteen volumes of the Globe Edition of Chas. Dickon's Works, beautifully illustrated, have just been added to the Portland Library.

NEARLY COMPLETED.—L street, in East Portland, has been nearly completed. The street has been planked to a point opposite Kiernan's floral garden.

CLEANED OUT.—Several of the cisterns along First street have lately been pumped out and cleansed of the accumulations of dirt at the bottoms.

IN QUANTITIES.—Great quantities of hay are arriving daily by the steamer Lurline from Sauvie's Island.

DUE.—The steamer Orifiamme will be due here from San Francisco this evening, with passengers and freight.

EPICUREANS will find at Stalls Nos. 10 and 11, Central Market, a very choice lot of game, fish and poultry. Quinn, who continues to dispense these luxuries at the Union Market, Washington street, presides over those Stalls, and that is all that need be said to induce every one to call.

The fall fights have begun in earnest, and are abundant. An individual, who had evidently imbibed too much tangle-foot, accidentally unloosened his arm, which sought refuge in the eye of a spectator, putting that member in mourning.

One of the worst habits the boys now indulge in is the throwing of stones by means of "slings." The Young Americans now sling the missiles around promiscuously, at the risk of breaking windows and injuring people who happen to be near them. The practice is not only dangerous, but useless, and ought to be stopped at once.

AMUSEMENTS.

The concert at Masonic Hall, in aid of Multnomah Lodge, I. O. G. T., will be given this evening. The programme is announced in another column. It presents a number of prominent amateurs in the city in many attractive literary, vocal and instrumental pieces. The great Vivian will introduce a number of his specialties. Prof. J. B. Wyatt wields the baton, and the affair promises a success.

The benefit given to John Wilson last night drew a fair audience, and the performance was good. The company will go to Hillsboro early this morning and give the people at the Fair a chance to see the greatest show ever coming to Oregon. We have spoken well of this show because it is much the best we have had, and can commend them to the fun-loving public. They will exhibit at the various prominent points throughout the State during the present month.

The opening of the fall and winter season was inaugurated by the Waldron Troupe in "Wild Oats," at Oro Fino Theater. The attendance was quite meagre, but this can easily be accounted for—the circus being a strong counter attraction. Mr. Waldron and the whole company were well up in their parts, and those who did not attend failed to witness some excellent acting. "Money" will be produced this evening with the full strength of the company. This play should crowd a large house.

IN MEMORIAM.

HALL OF COLUMBIA ENGINE CO., No. 3.
PORTLAND, Oct. 12, 1872.

WHEREAS, By a dispensation of the All-wise Providence, James S. Allen, a member of this Company, was on the 7th instant, after a lingering illness of many months, removed from our midst while in the full vigor of life; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Company do deeply feel and deplore the loss of one who was a faithful member and valued friend.

Resolved, That to the relatives of the deceased we desire to express feelings of heart-felt sympathy, hoping their grief may be assuaged and their burden made lighter in looking to Him, without whose knowledge not even a sparrow falleth to the ground.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the relatives of our deceased brother, and that the same be published in the daily papers.

VERY little time remains for you to decide whether you are going to vote for Grant or Greeley. This, however, need not disturb your mind in the least, as you will certainly decide the moment you gaze upon that elegant stock of new fall and winter goods lately opened at Fishel & Roberts', to have them take your measure for a suit. While there examine the latest styles in gents' furnishing goods. Youths can be accommodated with neat-fitting suits at this house.

THE Locke Bill, Water Works Bill, Litigant Bill, Police Bill, and other Bills, are attracting general attention throughout the State. You can do no better than buy a bill of goods at J. O'Neil & Co.'s. Their fall and winter goods are open for inspection. An excellent stock, indeed. The prices are moderate. You can depend upon getting clothes to fit at this house. Need anything more be said? No! The place is 153 First street.

The old saying is, "What everybody says must be true," and everyone says that Buck & Waldman have the largest and best selected stock of the latest styles and patterns in gentlemen's Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland. They have the largest variety of Boy's, Youth's, and Children's Suits, all which will be sold according to the times. Please call and satisfy yourself that we will not be undersold by anyone.

Our Bodily Infirmities.
Physical infirmities are the lot of all. Millions are always sick. No man, woman or child is uniformly in perfect health. Much, however, of the sickness and suffering which render life a burden to so many of our fellowbeings is due to carelessness and neglect. A mighty antidote to the leading causes of disease has been provided. It is as harmless as it is efficient. No poisonous drug enters into its composition. It is an undoubted stimulant, tonic and aperient, of which every ingredient is vegetable. This unexceptionable preventive and restorative medicine is not "a new thing under the sun." Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will soon have before the world a quater of a century, and it is not too much to aver that thousands, aye, tens of thousands, are now using it who would have been in their graves years ago, had they not been strengthened and sustained by this wholesome stimulant. The rapidity with which minor ailments often become, when neglected, obstinate diseases, is well known. This tonic is famous for the immediate check which it gives to these brooders of deadly disorders. The sensation of languor, the sick headache, the nervousness, the indisposition to exertion, the nausea, the confusion of brain, the physical debility, which are intended to pronounish us of the approach of serious danger, are invariably removed by a few doses of the Bitters. The fame of the preparation as a genuine specific for dyspepsia, bilious complaints, malarious fevers, rheumatism and general debility, is as wide as the world; and in these days of the famous charlatanism; when fierce cathartics, that rob the invalid of the last remnants of his strength, are advertised as invigorants (!), it is indeed a blessing to mankind that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are everywhere procurable, and everywhere popular.

Home Finances are just about in the condition as at the close of business last week The closeness of the Money market is unabated, with a free demand for funds to move in the products of our late harvest The volume of trade still continues to be strictly confined to legitimate channels, and all parties are operating with the greatest caution, more entertaining serious doubts about getting through without disaster

The demand for Freight room was never known to be so large, and vast quantities of produce are waiting shipping facilities. Freights in San Francisco continue exceedingly scarce, and unprecedentedly high rates have been paid. Everything in the shape of a sailing craft has been engaged in all sections our harvests are abundant, and we shall have plenty to send abroad during the coming year.

The San Francisco Trade Current says

Increasing activity in every where discernable. Auction trade sales of staple goods are now in order, consisting of Coffee, Tea, Rice, Tobacco, etc.; while recent public offerings of Boots and Shoes, Dry Goods and Clothing, have already received attention at our hands We have now a large fleet of vessels inward bound, fully one at this port. We are not easily laid off for their cargoes of General Merchandise as we are for their arrival to supply pressing tonnage wants for our surplus products—Wheat, Lumber, etc—now pressing upon us from the interior, and to such an extent as to be troubled to find storage room for it. Supplies of Wheat are more liberal than ever before. Stocks in warehouse are accumulating Our wharves, piers and streets adjacent are stacked, covered with thousands of sacks. Vessels are loaded with dispatch at Oakland wharf at the rate of 1,000 sacks an hour. A test case was made last week at the Oakland wharf, where, with but one gangway, 8,330 bags were taken in at this rate. Every possible means of conveyance are taxed to their utmost to bring the crop to tidewater, and yet there is no perceptible hole made in the pile. Thus far in the season we have been wonderfully favored with weather continuously, but the time is approaching when the connection will be broken Ships are making long passages, and tonnage is becoming scarcer than ever, with high freights. It will take a month or more to move the crop at the rate thus inaugurated, and with this large surplus, our friends abroad need not fear to send us their ships. We will fill them all at good and high freights

It is no seldom that Oregon gets credit for any of her products that we feel some pleasure in reproducing the following, from the New York Economist of a late date, in regard to Woolens made by one of our mills, though the subject may not be now agitating the public mind as extensively as at an earlier date in the season. The Economist says: "From every quarter, in fact, we hear of short supplies of Wool and high prices prevailing, but here at home the condition of things is just the reverse. The great trouble seems to be that our Eastern manufacturers have overstocked the goods market with low Woolens, and those Woolens have come into competition with a similar class of goods made in the West out of cheaper stock. Where on the broad continent is any double and twist cassimeres made that will outweigh or outwear the sixteen ounce goods made by the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, situated at Salem, Oregon, and yet they are sold at $1 60 ₱ yard. Our Eastern manufacturers had better wake up in time to a sense of their duty, for nice finished cotton shoddy goods are being made in too plentiful stock to secure good prices. Shall we once more put in a plea for the production of a better class of Woolen Cloths than any we have ever yet made? And shall we be forced to tell the manufacturers once again that they are running their machinery now, and all along, on a class of Woolens which few gentlemen (even among producers themselves) are disposed to wear in decent society, and hence we are compelled to send to Europe for all our fine Woolen Cloths. Under the highest tariff ever known to any civilized people, we are heartily ashamed to have to make an acknowledgment like this, when a great portion of our people are but too anxious to have their wants supplied with a better class of Woolens of a finer finish. But how can their wants be supplied until woolen manufacturers learn to put their looms on a finer class of Wool in the production of goods? Ahis, it would seem, they are reluctant to do at present."

Below we give some cullings from several commercial journals on the condition of Finances crops and markets in the Atlantic and Western States:

The Boston Shipping List says: Money continues about as scarce as last week, and rates still rule high. Choice commercial paper is offering freely at 9@12 ₱ cent. and upwards; and call loans are quoted firm at 8@9 ₱ cent. An easier feeling is expected when the October dividends get into circulation.

The New York Journal of Commerce says the demand for money continues to be active from speculative borrowers, but there appears to be little less urgent inquiry from parties in legitimate trade. Call loans are chiefly made upon the best securities at 7 per cent; and there are comparatively few exceptional transactions below this figure.

The Paducah Tobacco Plant of last week says that the drouth which set in about the first of August, and still continues has already materially damaged the growing tobacco crop, especially that portion of it which was set out late in the season in that section. It is intimated by some that the crop will be cut short fully one-half in yield and even more in quantity. In consequence of the total absence of rain during the intense hot weather which prevailed in the latter days of August the early-planted tobacco began to parch up and "fire" so badly in the fields that many of our farmers were compelled to cut their crops in an unripe state in order to save them from utter destruction.

The Philadelphia Commercial List says that for several weeks the petroleum producers have been manipulating the market with a view of enhancing the price of this important article of commerce. To this end they have combined to limit the production for the time being, the price having declined, it is claimed, below the point at which the business can be prosecuted with profit. On Monday last, a meeting was held at Oil City, at which a committee was appointed to decide how much of the production is to be stopped. The flow is now estimated at about 18,000 bbls per day, and the stock on hand at 900,000 bbls. With such an enormous surplus, the producers claim that they are entirely at the mercy of the refiners, and by stopping the production for 30 or 50 days, the stock would be so far reduced as to force up the price to $5 ₱ bbl, or nearly double the present rates.

Callao dates of September 13th mention the charter of the bark Ada to load Wheat at San Francisco for Liverpool at 70s. The bark Diana was to proceed to San Francisco in ballast, and others were expected to follow. The ship Orion was to go to Puget Sound for Lumber, whence the H. B. Litchfield and just arrived. Guano freights to Europe were £3 2s 6d to £3 10s; Nitrate from Iquiqui, £2 5s to £2 10s.

We have Valparaiso dates to August 31st. Wheat was dull at $3 6¼@3 8 60; Barley was inactive, but firm at $1 12½@1 25 ₱ 103 lbs; Flour, $6 75@7 50 ₱ 200 lbs.

The British bark Gannymede, 600 tons, was to proceed to San Francisco with Nitrate at £1,000, and thence with Wheat to Liverpool at 63s. Exchange, 40¼d.
